Dear Parents,

Although the BBC has lost the rights to the Bake-Off, the Irthington Fairtrade Bake-Off is back!

This year we would like the children to use or devise a recipe for cakes, biscuits or tray bake, to include a minimum of 50% Fairtrade ingredients. This means that if, for example, a recipe contained 8 ingredients, 4 or more of the ingredients would have to be Fairtrade. Extra marks will, however, be given for recipes which include more than 50% Fairtrade ingredients. Sainsburys, Marks and Spencer, the Carlisle World shop and Half Moon are the best places to purchase Fairtrade ingredients.

The Bake-off will take place on Friday 23rd June in the Food Technology room at William Howard School. The children will be accompanied by me and Mrs Harrison, though sadly on this occasion Mary Berry will not be joining us.

If children would like to take part, they must supply details of their recipe with the application form at the end of this letter. Children will be expected to supply their own ingredients. In order to qualify, the recipe must contain at least 50% Fairtrade ingredients and, in order to make this a fair competition, on the day we will require evidence of this, either receipts or the original packaging.

I must stress that, although this competition is open to all children, the children must be able to follow the recipe instructions AND complete the cooking entirely independently, including using all the necessary kitchen equipment, using the oven with supervision, if necessary, and clearing up.

If your child would like to apply to take part please help them to complete the attached form and return to school by Wednesday 21st June.

I apologise for the short notice but logistically it has been a challenge to find a date before the end of term which suits William Howard and fits in with our busy school diary which is packed with events and activities.

Thank you for your support.

Yours sincerely,

Fiona Sweetman
